Symptoms

Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

THURSDAY, APRIL 13TH.

Grand Musical Concert By the Brockmann Orchestra.

At a meeting of the Brockmann Orchestra last night, it was decided to give a concert on Thursday, the 13th of April, at the Academy of Music.

The Orchestra has been practicing for several weeks, and intends to give the people of Greensboro some good music—not classical selections, but music that will be appreciated by all who hear it.

In addition to the orchestral numbers there will be two full choruses, male quartette, and other numbers which will add very largely to the enjoyment of the evening.

The following gentlemen were appointed at a business meeting a few weeks ago as committees to look after the different parts of the program:

Prof. Chas. J. Brockmann, director; Z. V. Taylor, male quartette; M. S. Sherwood, arrangements; A. H. Alderman, J. H. Wheeler, chorures.

Special numbers will be announced later. Prof. Brockmann is doing his best to make this a memorable occasion.

OAK RIDGE-CORNELL.

The Two Good Teams On the Diamond This Afternoon.

The Cornell baseball team arrived here on the vestibule this morning, twenty-two strong. The are being coached by Hugh Jennings, Baltimores famous short-stop, who will play with Brooklyn this year. He will remain with Cornell until the league season opens. The Cornell team is said to be in fine trim and the game this afternoon is expected to be exceptionally fine.

The Oak Ridge boys came down on the A. & Y. train at noon accompanied by the Oak Ridge cornet band and a number of students. Both teams are stopping at the Benbow. Cornell went to the grounds this morning and practiced a short while and the two teams practiced together a short while this afternoon until the game opened at 3:30. It is a pity that the weather is so disagreeable, preventing many of those who would like to see the game, from doing so.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

Two Horses Not Found in Their Stables This Morning.

The Wakefield Hardware Company's dray horse strayed or was stolen from his stable back of the company's store last night. One would think from the appearance of the place, that the animal was stolen. The staple was drawn from the door and the harness thrown on the stable floor. Chief of Police Rees was notified and sent several telegrams to authorities of different towns near by asking them to look out for the horse which is a brownish gray color and large size.

Rufus Brown's horse was also missing from his stable on West Washington street this morning. Mr. Brown thinks however that his has only strayed as it was possible for the animal to have gotten out.

Jail Jottings.

Will Hanes, white, was drinking a little too heavily last night and raised a little disturbance in the vicinity of the court house. Chief Rees and Constable Scott marched him to the lock-up in short order.

Oscar Flagg, colored, was yesterday taxed with the costs for being drunk. He paid out.

Mack Hobson, colored, was brought to jail this morning by Deputy Sheriff Gray, of Jamestown. Mack has been eating chickens that didn't belong to him.

Officer Whittington landed Cicero Mitchell this morning, who is charged with an affray.

Alex Jarrell was tried before Squire Pritchett this morning for assault and sent to the roads for 30 days.

Important Meeting Tonight.

We are requested by the chairman to announce an important meeting of the finance committee of the North Carolina State Firemen's Tournament and Greensboro Industrial and County Exhibit, in the directors' room at the Greensboro National Bank. This committee is composed of the following gentlemen: C. H. Ireland, chairman; C. M. Vanstory, J. W. Scott, R. Lindheim, C. E. Holton, W. E. Bevill, John M. Dick, B. H. Merrimon, E. P. Wharton, Robt. R King, J. M. Walker, J. W. Fry, J. S. Hunter, J. M. Hendrix, R. W. Brooks and R. L. Vernon.

Running Extra Trains.

The business being done on the Winston road since the Southern and Norfolk & Western joined hands is enormous. Ten extra trains were run on the road Saturday making sixteen in all. The Atlantic & Yadkin is still handling a large amount of freight which goes to Walnut Cove, though most of it is coal which belongs to the Coast Line.

M'ARTHUR NEARING MALOLOS

The Troops Are Vigorous And in Prime Condition.

BIG FIGHT EXPECTED TOMORROW

The Insurgents Have Retreated To The Malolos Intrenchments.

Americans Closing In.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, March 28—General McArthur's division, after a short rest at Marialo, advanced toward Malolos at 9:30 this morning. Its immediate objective point is the town of Bocave, five miles north of Marialao. The troops are vigorous and in prime condition, and it is expected that McArthur will be in front of Malolos this afternoon. A heavy battle will probably be begun early tomorrow morning. All trenches have been swept clear of insurgents, who have retreated to the Malolos intrenchments, with the Americans pressing forward with resistless vim close to their flying heels. Hale's brigade is skirting the right flank of the advance. Otis covers the left, while Wheaton is hurrying up in the centre. The American lines are so compact that the country is scoured, and the rebels are forced to keep to the railroad in retreat. Aguinaldo is at the head of the fleeing army, but great efforts will be made to capture him.

BRILLIANT CHARGE OF DAKOTANS.

Washington, March 28—The following dispatch was received from General Otis at 2:40 this morning: "McArthur's division was severely engaged yesterday afternoon beyond Marialao. The South Dakotans, led by Drost, made a brilliant charge against some of Aguinaldo's troops brought from Malolos. The enemy was driven back with considerable slaughter. Four of our officers and twenty-six enlisted men were wounded. The loss on yesterday was confined to this regiment. The partial destruction of the railroad, which is now being repaired, greatly impedes McArthur's progress. The supply railroad trains have reached Marialao, and McArthur's men are pushing on. Our small gunboats did great execution yesterday on the Bulacan river, relieving the pressure upon McArthur's front materially. Much of the country north of Manila is in flames in consequence of the proclamation issued by the rebel general, Chief Luna."

PRINCE LOWENSTEIN KILLED.

Washington, March 28—Otis cables that Prince Lowenstein, who was with Wheaton's command, carried some refreshments to the officers of the Second Oregon upon the firing line. He was cautioned of the danger, but advanced with the line when the entrenchments were charged, and was killed, and his friend wounded. His remains were delivered to friends in the city.

Adjutant General Corbin describes Otis' campaign as admirable in every way. The situation is perfectly satisfactory. Otis' statement that our gunboats did great execution upon the Bulacan river throws some light upon the recent purchase of Spanish boats.

CAPTURE OF MALOLOS EXPECTED.

Washington, March 28—Gen. Corbin said last night that he expected to hear of the capture of the Malolos today. The same spirit of expectation reigns throughout the department today. All hands are anxious to hear of the capture of Aguinaldo.

THE LATEST.

Manila, March 28—McArthur's division advanced nearly two miles this morning unopposed. Approaching Bulacan the forces halted, preparatory to attacking it.

Ladies who want to buy up-to-date low shoes for spring and summer wear, go and take a look at the new Southern button and the Oxford's just put on sale at Thacker & Brockmann's. The Cincinnati, Carlisle and Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co's. lines are particularly attractive. If it does not suit you to go to the store, Thacker & Brockmann will take pleasure in sending a selection of these styles to your residence for you to examine and try on.

He Feels Aggrieved.

Mr. J. H. Newberry feels that an injustice has been done him inasmuch as it was published in this paper Saturday that he could not give bond in the vaccination case. A reporter of this paper got his information from the officer who accompanied Mr. Newberry on his rounds to secure the required bond and the fact that it was not given was accepted as proof that the news item was correct. It seems, however, that Mr. Newberry did not care to give bond or could not find his friends, as it has developed that, though he is a comparative stranger here, he has friends who would have readily stood for him.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY.

Greensboro Is to Have a New City Directory.

Greensboro will have an opportunity to have a first class city directory complete in every detail, if our business and professional men will give the proper patronage. Mr. Wm. M. Kersh, manager of the Maloney Directory Co., one of the largest directory publishing concerns in the country, is spending a few days in the city and if he meets with sufficient encouragement he will put in a force of trained men at once and will get out a work for thoroughness equal to that of the publications of the larger cities. The directories shown us by Mr. Kersh are the most comprehensive and creditable we have ever seen and our business men should give him such encouragement as to insure a similar publication for Greensboro, as he will not get the work out unless the patronage will warrant a first class publication, for his company would not get out any other kind.

The Telegram will be glad of such a publication for Greensboro and trusts that the business community will do its part.

Notice.

See Saturday's paper, of April 1, 1899, you will find your property advertised for sale on account of delinquent city taxes, if not paid before, as the list is ready for publication.

LEGISLATION FOR CUBA.

Considerable Will Be Required Of The Fifty-Sixth Congress.

NO EXTRA SESSION IN SIGHT.

The President Enjoyed His Southern Trip, And Will Visit Us Again Before His Term Is Out.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 28—Several Representatives who composed the party of Senator Tillman and Representative Latimer, of South Carolina, passed through Washington Sunday and Monday on their way to their various homes. The members seen expressed pleasure over their visit to the southern states, and paid their respects to the distinguished South Carlinians who were responsible for the trip. Their visit to Florida was especially delightful, this being the best time of the whole year for a tour of that state, and they only regretted that they could not remain longer in the state. It is believed that the visit to the south will result in much good to the section in matters of legislation during the next congress. In regard to the visit to Cuba, the representatives say that matters on the island just now are very quiet, but that considerable in the way of legislation for Cuba will be required at the hands of the fifty-sixth congress.

Whenever representatives and senators are in Washington in very large numbers talk naturally drifts to the prospects of an extra session of congress. The opinion is general that there will be no early meeting of the two houses, unless the president calls an extra session in October. This would enable the two houses to organize and get ready for active work of the regular session in December. Most congressmen, however, believe now that congress will not reassemble until the first Monday in December.

Southern men in Washington in speaking of the recent correspondence between Col. Bryan and Hon. Perry Belmont commend the letter of Mr. Bryan, and say that in declining to participate in a banquet, the majority of the guests of which would have been anti-democrats, like Col. Belmont, that Mr. Bryan is perfectly justified, and it shows the caliber of the man. For an anti-silver organization to invite the silver leader to sit at a banquet and listen to gold speeches is what most southern men cannot quite understand.

People passing through Washington enroute home from the south say that the president's visit to Georgia and Florida has been very pleasant, and that while the southern people differ from the president in politics, personally they honor and admire him for his broad intellect and patriotic views on public questions. It is said before the expiration of his term President McKinley will take another southern trip, and next time will go as far south as Tampa, Florida. Virginia people say that an effort will then be made to get the president to visit Richmond, Lynchburg, Roanoke, and other Virginia cities enroute. Charleston, S. C., people are also anxious to get the president to attend the Confederate reunion in that city next May.

People from Mississippi in this city say that Representative Allen, while popular in the state, is not looked upon by the people there in quite the same light as his admirers look upon him in this section of the country. Mr. Allen is conducting a vigorous candidacy for the United States senate, and is making one of his characteristic canvarses. Much doubt is expressed, however, as to his ability to break the alleged compact between Senator Sullivan, and Governor McLaurin, whereby McLaurin was to succeed the former. Many Mississippi people believe that in the event of a long continued struggle in the legislature, Sullivan will be elected to succeed himself.

Representative Swanson, of Virginia, is prominently mentioned as a candidate for governor of the Old Dominon. If he become a candidate he will receive strong support in the democratic convention from all sections of the state.

Indians in Revolt.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Montreal, Canada, March 28—The St. Regis Indians, near Cornwall, have risen in revolt, demanding the return of their tribal system. The Indian agent has been locked in a school house, and the police, sent from Ottowa to assist in the elections which were to have been held yesterday, have been driven away. Troops will probably be sent to the scene from Ottowa.

STORM AT SALISBURY.

The Hosiery Mill Struck by Lightning—Considerable Damage.

During a severe electrical storm that passed over the city of Salisbury yesterday at 9 o'clock the Salisbury Hosiery Mill was struck by lightning and a greater portion of the building and machinery, together with eight thousand dozen half hose, were destroyed. The amount of loss is not known yet, but is covered by insurance. No one was hurt seriously, though several were shocked. Eighty-five people are thrown out of employment.

Assistant Superintendent Simpson worked heroically to save the building before the arrival of the fire companies. The firemen did good work. It is not known yet whether the mill will be rebuilt or not.

Miss Susie Overman, who lives near the Salisbury Cotton Mill, was struck by lightning during the storm and was seriously but not fatally hurt.

THE TELEGRAM.

Having made recent additions to our force and equipment we deem it not out of place to make an announcement in regard thereto at this time. It has ever been the aim of the Telegram to give its readers the very best paper possible and to make improvements such as the patronage justified. With this aim still in view, Mr. N. Eugene Pepper, a young man of bright mind and high intellectual attainments, whose work will speak for itself, has been added to the staff. It is with much pleasure that we introduce him and commend him to the consideration of Telegram readers.

Since the paper began publication and up to the present time our press work has been done at the printing house of Mr. C. F. Thomas, and the appearance of the paper has spoken well for his service. We have, however, added to our equipment a first class power press and job printing outfit of latest and newest styles of type, etc. We are daily expecting the arrival of a new gas engine, and when that is in position we will be fully equipped for our newspaper work and prepared to offer business men the best and most artistic work in the job printing line. Our motto will be: Good work at living prices, and no slouch work at any price.

Our friends are all invited to call at our new office in the McAdoo House building, southside, where we will be pleased to take subscriptions and orders for advertising or job work. Manager McAdoo, of the telephone exchange, owing to weather conditions and the tedious work of putting in cable lines, has not yet put in our telephone. In the meantime, we will go or send anywhere for business or news items on receipt of a message.

Now is the time to subscribe.

Now is the time to plant a spring advertisement.

IF WE WERE THRICE-ARMED.

There is something exceedingly pathetic about the situation of the Filipino warrior—so different from that of the American soldier. The latter, leaving his home of peace and happiness, enters upon a career of blood unimpelled by those motives which inspire the poor native to fight for his home and his lands, and in the vain protection of which he is slain by the invader from beyond the seas. The Filipino is fighting for the same principle that warmed the breast of Patrick Henry. Otis occupies the position Lord Cornwallis occupied. We are American. We hope, and we know, that the glorious stars and stripes will wave triumphant over the Philippines and perhaps some day it will be well that the subjugation was effected, but the chords in the breast of the true-hearted American would, when reading of the glories of our arms at Meyranayan and Polo and Malalos, vibrate with a keener and a warmer thrill if we had a holier quarrel with the Filipinos.

If, as as is constantly insisted by the gold writers, Mr. Bryan was only an "incident" and an "accident" in 1896, and that in refusing to dine with the New York millionaires he has offended the great body of democrats in the land, and that he represents only the populistic sentiment of the country, etc.,etc.,—then why all this fright, these uneasy speculations and self-assurances among his enemies. If Mr. Bryan is the nonentity they represent him to be, no danger need be expected from him.

We have received a copy of "The Wasp," a specimen of a new species of journalistic fungi, born at Danbury, Stokes county, with Thos. S. Petree and B. Frank Young as editors. We clip from the Wasp an item which no doubt interested its local readers, and which gives an idea of its mission:

Isaac Bullin moved here last Sunday week. He is a member of the Hardshell church. Woe be unto him.

The First North Carolina Regiment has landed homeward-bound upon our shores and will be mustered out of service at Savannah next week. Many a mother's heart, sad at the long absence of that one who was the joy of the household and the pride of the home, is glad at the coming of the noble First. Within its ranks are as noble and brave soldiers as ever marched to the tap of the war drum.

In view of the fact that it has been raining on as usual since the 16th inst. —the expiration of the ground-hog reign—we are constrained to be of the opinion that the pesky little animal has had the fates to indefinitely extend the term of weather over which he gloatingly exercises dominion.

The Russell administration of North Carolina finds its counterpart in New York, where it is said the corruption of the Albany legislature has become so scandalous that an effort will be made to bring the session to a close for fear of a wreck of the republican party.

The North Carolina regiment will be brought to the city tomorrow, and the Virginians on Wednesday. The troops will go at once into camp and be mustered out here next week. Recent Revenue Ruling.

The following modification of the regulations regarding the sale of leaf tobacco has been sent out from Washington to the deputy collectors:

Treasury Department, Office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., March 16, 1899.—To Collectors of Internal Revenue: Existing regulations relating to the sale of tobacco by a qualified dealer in leaf tobacco in quantities less than a hogshead, case or bale, are hereby modified with respect to cigar leaf, which may be purchased by any qualified manufacturer of cigars from any qualified dealer in leaf tobacco, in quantities less than the original package, for use in his own manufactory exclusively.

Such sales shall be entered by the leaf dealer in the government book, record 59, which shall show the date of sale, actual quantity of tobacco sold, name of purchaser, his business, district and state. No permit will be required for the sale of cigar leaf tobacco as herein authorized.

The commercial usage of billing the tobacco at the marked instead of the actual weight will be permitted when the bill of sale discloses the actual weight of the tobacco at the time of sale.

G. W. Wilson, Commissioner.
Approved by L. J. Gage, Secretary.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by C. E. Holton.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by C. E. Holton.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles, Instst vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Howard Gardner.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist Church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says; "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

The Americans Republican Club, of Pittsburg, will entertain Admiral Sohley at its coming banquet.

He Caught O'Connell.

Daniel O'Connell, the famous orator, when taking a ride in the neighborhood of his house, had occasion to ask an urchin to open a gate for him. The little fellow complied with much alacrity and looked up with such an honest pleasure at rendering the slight service that O'Connell, by way of saying something—anything—asked:

"What's your name, my boy?"

"Daniel O'Connell, sir," replied he stoutly.

"And who's your father?" demanded the astonished liberator.

"Daniel O'Connell, sir."

O'Connell muttered a word or two below his breath and then added aloud:

"When I see you again, I'll give you sixpence."

Riding briskly on, he soon forgot the incident and fell to thinking of graver matters, when, after traveling some miles, he found his path obstructed by some fallen timber, which a boy was stoutly endeavoring to remove. On looking more closely he discovered it to be the same boy he had met in the morning.

"What!" cried he. "How do you come to be here now?"

"You said, sir, the next time you seen me you'd give me sixpence," said the little fellow, wiping the perspiration from his brow.

Somebody's Mother.

A ragged woman was crossing the corner of a public park in a large city where the children of the poor are accustomed to play, many of them barefooted. A burly policeman stationed at the corner watched the woman suspiciously. Half way across she stopped and picked up something which she hid in her apron. In an instant the policeman was by her side. With a gruff voice and threatening manner he demanded:

"What are you carrying off in your apron?"

The woman seemed embarrassed and refused to answer. Thereupon the officer of the law, thinking that she had doubtless picked up a pocketbook which she was trying to make away with, threatened to arrest her unless she told him at once what she had in her apron.

At this the woman reluctantly unfolded her apron and disclosed a handful of broken glass.

In stupid wonder the policeman asked:

"What do you want with that stuff?"

A flush passed over the woman's face; then she answered simply:

"If you please, sir, I just thought I'd take it out of the way of the children's feet."—Detroit Free Press.

Too Much For Belief.

One of the brethren went to Knoxville last August and fell by the wayside—he got drunk down there. After several months the news of his fall reached his rural home, and he was brought up before the church.

"Brethren," he said, "I admit I got drunk in Knoxville last August, but I didn't mean to do it. How I have suffered in my conscience and in my pride God alone knows, and I trust he has forgiven me. Brethren, I want you to forgive me. I didn't go to get drunk. I took a glass or two of light wine with a friend, and later took a bottle of beer on ice, and then"—

"Brethren," interrupted a good old brother in the amen corner, "I would be willing to forgive the brother for his fall if he would make a clean breast of it and tell the truth. But I move we turn him out for lying. He has lied to us. Whoever heard of ice in August?"

And they turned him out because he dared to say that he had seen ice in August.—Sweetwater (Tenn.) Telephone.

Her Age at Monte Carlo.

A curious story comes from Monte Carlo the heroine of which has lost a large sum through excusable female vanity. She entered the gaming saloon while a former friend of hers was winning in a sweeping style that seemed destined to break the bank.

"I am so glad to see you here, prince, and in such luck, too!" she exclaimed. "Do tell me a lucky number. It is sure to win, for you are now in the vein."

The prince generously placed a pile of gold louis before the vivacious lady, whose beauty had successfully defied the effects of 36 winters, and said:

"Put it all on the number of your years and reap a golden harvest."

The lady reflected, hesitated and then placed the pile on 27.

An instant later the croupier sang out:

"Thirty-six red wins!"

"Heavens!" muttered the lady as she fainted. "Thirty-six is exactly my age!"

MRS. HOUSEKEEPER:

Please permit us to ask you a very pointed question: Have you a Universal Food Chopper? By this we do not mean a meat grinder, but a Chopper, which takes the place of chopping bowl and beater.

It chops meat, of course, but it does more. You can chop ham, cocoanut, or bread instead of grating it. You can—but we can't tell it all here. Our booklet gives full information Free. You will have use for it every day in the year. It is very simple and very cheap. Please call and let us show it to you. Yours truly,

Shrier's First Offerings.

We take pleasure this season in presenting for your consideration what we consider the finest assortment of Form-Fitting Shoes for men and ladies, misses and children, ever shown in Greensboro.

Our lines for Spring are now complete and only await the prestige of your approval.

Every new idea in quality and finish, ease and comfort, grace of style and excellence of workmanship are embodied in this season's production.

Owing to our central location and the nominal expense required to conduct our business, we are enabled to sell our goods 25 per cent cheaper than any house in Greensboro, quality and make considered.

The question where to buy good and reliable goods at the right price is a very important one. We feel if you call on us, we can answer the question to your entire satisfaction, and make a lasting impression besides.

Do not be deluded by the thought that the assortments in the large cities are greater. True, the quantity is greater, but the assortment is no better, and the price is correspondingly higher, owing to the increased expense.

Kindly call on us at your earliest convenience and allow us to prove to you that these statements are true.
